Message

It is my pleasure to welcome students who have chosen Gauhati University Institute of Distance and Open Learning (GUIDOL) for meeting their aspiration in higher education. This institution has been playing a leading role in the Open and Distance Learning (ODL) space in the context of higher education since its inception in 1998.

As the need for higher education goes up in society, conventional classroom learning and formal education mechanisms are finding it difficult to meet the increased demand. The role of an ODL institution like GUIDOL has to be seen in this light and this institution has been successful by taking teaching learning process beyond the limitation of conventional classroom teaching.

I hope the newly admitted students will be able to make the best use of facilities offered by GUIDOL and be able to attain their higher education goals.

A university

Of the People

For the People

By the People

The establishment of Gauhati University was the culmination of a prolonged movement by the people of Assam for a University of their own since the early years of the twentieth century.

The demand for a University was raised in many forums, and over several decades. In 1917, presiding over the annual session of the Assam Association at Sibsagar, Satyanath Bora strongly

The emblem of Gauhati University contains a wealth of meaning. On it is inscribed the name of the University and its motto in two significant Sanskrit words Vidyaya Sadhayete

'Achieve through learning.'

Sadhayeta indicates that the learner is the rightful person (Adhikari) of the fruit of learning. The Ishopanishad states that one can attain immortality through learning or knowledge.

The Vision

Dr. Bhupen Hazarika's well-known song on Gauhati University advocated the case for a separate University in Assam. He pointed out that the Calcutta University could hardly reflect the ethos and aspiration of the people of Assam. In fact, the Sadler Commission, while visiting Cotton College in 1917, remarked that Assam could not be expected to mould its national character and shape its courses and curriculum of study so long as it remained under the academic control of Calcutta University. The matter was discussed in the Legislative Council for the first time in April 1917. A resolution that Assam should have a separate University was moved by Daiba Chandra Talukdar in the annual conference of the Guwahati Ekata Sabha, held at the Curzon Hall in 1928 under the presidentship of Karmabir Nabin Chandra Bordoloi.

Assamese Learners' Welfare League, based in Calcutta, became very active during this time and the demand for the University in Assam gathered momentum. Assamese was then recognized only as a subsidiary subject in Calcutta University and the League was successful in making it one of the principal languages. In 1931, the MA classes in English in Cotton College were abolished and there was also a move to shift the Earle Law College to outside Assam. These moves irked the people of Assam and the demand for a separate University grew stronger.

A resolution was tabled for an Assam University in Assam Legislative Council on 17th March, 1935, but the Government was not in favour of this because of financial constraints. A widely represented meeting, organized by the Assam Association and the Sangrakshini Sabha, was held at the Curzon Hall, Guwahati on 30th April, 1935 with Lokapriya Gopinath Bordoloi on the chair. The meeting called for immediate establishment of a University in Assam and decided to form a University Committee with the coordinated efforts of the Assam Association, the Assamese Learners' Welfare League and the University Action Committee of Nagaon, a movement was launched all over the state for establishment of a separate University for Assam. University Day was observed throughout the state on 22nd May, 1935 with processions and public meetings. The Government of Assam owing to increasing public pressure prepared two schemes, one by J.R. Cunningham, retired Director of Public Instruction, Assam and the other by Dr. S.K. Bhuyan. Neither of the schemes were found acceptable. However, Robertson, who was the principal of Murarichand College and who also served Assam as Director of the Education Department wrote in the annual report. "It is said, Assam cannot afford to have University of its own, it cannot afford not to have one".

The initiatives for setting up a University were renewed after the Second World War. In December, 1944 the Gauhati University Trust Board was formed with Lokapriya Bordoloi as its President. Bordoloi, ably assisted by Madhab Chandra Bezbaruah, Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed, Bhubaneswar Barua, Maheswar Neog and others, toured the entire Assam Valley and secured a promise of more than 16 lakhs of rupees of donation. Of this, more than 5 lakhs were collected within a few months. Meanwhile, Bordoloi took over as the first Prime Minister of Assam in independent India. The formation of a popular Government under the leadership of Bordoloi made the task easier and as the State's Education Minister, Bordoloi moved the Gauhati University Bill. The Bill was accepted in Assam Assembly on 15 October, 1947. The jurisdiction of Calcutta University and Dacca Board of Intermediate and Secondary Education over Assam and the N.E. Region ceased with effect from 26th January, 1948. On this date, Chief Minister Bordoloi formally inaugurated the Gauhati University. The eminent scholar and educationist Krishna Kanta Handiqui joined the University as its first Vice-Chancellor and Phanidhar Dutta, a professor of Mathematics of Cotton College was appointed its first Registrar.

The University started functioning from a building left behind by the military in the Cotton College campus. From 1948, the University had 18 affiliated colleges besides two professional colleges, the Assam Medical College at Dibrugarh and the Assam Agricultural College at Jorhat till 1955. That year, the University was shifted to its present campus at Jalukbari.

Gauhati University could be established due to the aspiration of the people of Assam and their help and cooperation under the relentless and untiring efforts of a band of dedicated workers led by Gopinath Bordoloi, Madhab Chandra Bezbaruah, Sarat Chandra Goswami, Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed, Bhubaneswar Baruah and many others.

A UNIQUE HERITAGE

The unprecedented and spontaneous financial support of the public and their untiring involvement in the thirty-one-year struggle has thus led to the establishment of Gauhati University.

During the crucial initial years, this institution received the guidance of Krishna Kanta Handiqui, a pioneering Indologist and philanthropist as its Vice Chancellor.

V. Venkata Rao, Professor Emeritus, donated his life savings of about 15 lakhs of rupees for the promotion of higher education in the country through several Universities.

A galaxy of eminent scholars and administrators, such as Bani Kanta Kakati, Birinchi Kumar Baruah, Maheswar Neog, Satyendra Nath Sarma, Paban Chandra Mahanta, Hiten Barua, Rohini Kanta Barua and many others will always be remembered for their notable contributions to the academic world and to the development of the University.

Over the years and across the decades since its existence, Gauhati University has emerged as a symbol of integration: it has offered opportunities of Higher Study to Learners from the ethnically and culturally diverse mosaic of communities of the North East.

Radio Luit 90.8 FM Community Radio Service of Gauhati University

Community Radio is the third model of radio broadcasting beyond commercial and public broadcasting service. It broadcasts content which is popular and relevant to a local or specific audience but often overlooked by other media. Radio Luit 90.8 FM is the first campus based Community Radio Station in Northeast. It is a non-profit Radio service. On 18th of January 2011 radio Luit started its trial broadcasting. After some days of practice Radio Luit flagged off its journey formally on 1st march 2011. It serves for community development with the active participation of the community in various aspects i.e. content management, programming and decision making of the Radio station. Gauhati University obtained the license and frequency 90.8 FM from the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India for the establishment of the Community Radio Station in its campus. Radio Luit operates 12 hours daily between 8 am to 8 pm. In this radio station students, faculty members of Gauhati University and people from surrounding areas of Gauhati University play active role in managing this station. Radio Luit has a simple policy where anyone from the community can participate and it encourages more community participation. Moreover, students can earn while learn radio production at their own station. Radio Luit creates content with the participation mostly of students and common people of its coverage area in various themes i.e. Educational, Health, Environment, Cultural and Community development as priority areas.

Radio Luit is not for profit and endeavors to provide a mechanism for facilitating students, teacher, non-teaching staff, their family members and the members of the community hailing from the surrounding areas to tell their own diverse stories, to share experiences in a media rich world and to become active creators and contributors of media. This Radio station covers an area of approximately 15 km of radius from the premise of GU IDOL where the studio is situated.

Let's see some activities from 2016 onwards. After concluding a capacity building workshop and baseline survey, Radio Luit started a one year project from 1st of March, 2016 on 'Science for Women's health and nutrition'. This project was catalyzed by the NCSTC, DST, Govt. of India. Radio Luit named it as Baandhobi. Baandhobi went on air three times a day with fresh episodes. With full participation of women, Baandhobi showed the participants a path of confidence and joy of work with creativity. A long year project Baandhobi had become a very good platform for women of all age groups to expose their talent. All 365 episodes of Baandhobi are now available in www.edaa.in. Total 484 programmes are uploaded in the website.

Sarathi is another initiative taken by ASDMA (Assam State Disaster Management Authority) and ARMT (Dr. Anamika Roy Memorial Trust) with Radio Luit on the issue of Disaster Management and Preparedness. Sarathi was radio series of 10 episodes. All episodes were produced on magazine format with participation of community people and experts from ASDMA and faculty from Geological Science, GU. After doing Focus Group Discussion and in-depth interviews in the community, Radio Luit produced all episodes and broadcasted it from 1st September, 2017.

Jeevikais a Skill Development and Livelihood initiative. In collaboration with CEMCA (Commonwealth Educational Media Center for Asia) and ARMT, Radio Luit successfully produced 25 numbers of CLP (Community Learning Programme) and 45 numbers of Radio spots after a proper baseline study among 700 youth samples in the community. It was started broadcasting from 15th October, 2017. Now, it is running in repeat mode.

Scholarship Alerts is recently been added on last year. So many scholarships announcements usually come out every year in our country by Govt. or some other organizations. But, due to lack of communication our youths do not get chance to grab these scholarships. Buddy4study.com is a website which works to promote these scholarships and to publicize it. So, after signing an agreement, Radio Luit started getting information from their team regularly and has been broadcasting Scholarship Alerts since third week of March, 2017.

BBC showed interest for a non-commercial partnership with community radio stations. So, from October, last year we have added a slot for BBC programmes. It goes on air every day at 5:10 PM. These programmes are based on English learning, discovery, Cultural frontline etc.

Radio Luit has always been trying to be dynamic. Without association of other organizations Radio Luit launches some initiatives sometimes. JeevanDaataBrikkhaBidhaata is one of them. This is a forestation campaign. People are coming forward and taking saplings from Radio Luit and taking care of them as a baby. Recently, approximately 200 numbers of saplings especially of Gulmohar has been distributed among GU hostels and other parts of the university as well.

Radio Luit also organizes some community meets on Financial awareness, Eye donation awareness, Blood donation camps, competitions among school children, Film screenings etc.

Some regular programmes of Radio Luit:

Bikhyon ,Boroniya,Quizerria, Mukoli Sora, Byaktitwa, Malini, Kakoli, Shariram Adyam,Aalap, Gaawe Bhuye,Drama,Sobi Katha , Geetali , Talk,Feature,Patrika,Obhigyan,Prajanma etc.
